Adam Booth's blend of original stories, traditional mountain folklore, music and stories from contemporary Appalachia make him unique among storytellers and a leader in the genre. He has been featured at the International Storytelling Conference, the National Storytelling Festival, and has been a Resident at the Banff Spoken Word Centre. His recordings have received two Parents' Choice Gold Awards, two Silver Honors Awards, and four Storytelling World Awards. He is a four-time champion of the WV Liars' Contest, and founder of the Speak Story Series, a nationally and internationally recognized program of storytelling.
